

ALUMNAE UPDATE

22 October 2020

ALUMNAE APPOINTMENTS

Appointment of 2 Alumnae to the Inanda Seminary Board of Governors

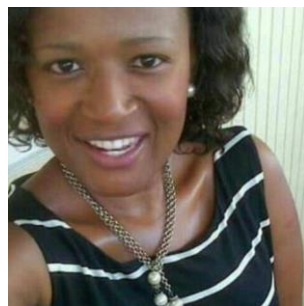

We are immensely proud to announce that Zama Mkosi ('91) and Sizakele Madlala ('96) have been appointed to represent the alumnae on the school's Board of Governors (BoG). The school's Board Charter allows for six (6) alumnae to represent the larger alumnae body in the school's BoG; four (4) members must be members of the ISAA Board and two (2) must not be. Zama and Sizakele fall in the latter category. The former brings legal and the latter brings financial expertise. Ms. Madlala will also join the school's Financial Committee.

Zama is a qualified attorney with over 20 years' professional experience as a practicing commercial attorney. She has also held several senior executive leadership positions in the public and private sectors.

Zama Mkosi ('91)

Zama holds a Master of Philosophy in International Business degree, with a research focus on the profitable integration of developing economy corporations into the Global Value Chain.

Sizakele Madlala ('96)

Sizakele is a qualified Finance professional with experience in development finance, project finance, and financial analysis. She currently works for the Industrial Development Corporation (IDC) and is responsible for conducting due diligence, monitoring the implementation of projects. She has previously worked for the Women's Development Bank (WDB) as well as the National Treasury, where she was responsible for the financial and capital expenditure (capex) projects oversight of all Development Finance Institutions (DFIs), Water Boards (WBs) and other State-Owned-Companies (SOCs). She holds a Master's in Finance and MBA degrees.

We welcome them and hope they bring their zeal, experiences, and youth to infuse the BoG with fresh blood and innovative ideas as we Re-Imagine the future.

ALUMNAE ON THE MOVE

NEW CEO FOR SANAC TRUST

The Board of Trustees of the South African National AIDS Council (SANAC) has announced the appointment of Dr. Thembisile Xulu ('91) as the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the SANAC Trust

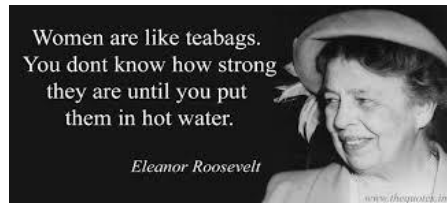

Dr. Xulu is a seasoned public health practitioner with a special focus on HIV and TB response. She was with the Right to Care (RTC) Group for over 15 years where she served in various capacities ranging from being Manager of the HIV Expert Treatment Programme to Executive Director of the Group in 2007 and served on the RTC board until March 2020. She was the Chief of Party of EQUIP, the first African-led USAID funded international consortium of HIV implementing partners which was established to rapidly scale up innovative HIV treatment and prevention solutions towards meeting the UNAIDS 90-90-90 goals in more than 10 PEPFAR supported countries. Dr. Xulu is a medical doctor who graduated with an MBChB from the University of KwaZulu Natal. She further obtained two diplomas from The Colleges of Medicine of South Africa: one in Obstetrics and another in HIV Management. In 2008, she completed her master's degree in Public Health (Health Management and Health Policy) from the University of the Witwatersrand. She is a 2010 Yale University World Fellow, and she is also a Certified Director with the Institute of Directors of South Africa.

SOURCE: SANAC Press Release

Dr. Thembisile Xulu ('91)

HOT OFF THE PRESS

Digital launch of Kwanele, Enough! by Andy Kawa ('79)

Oct 23, 2020 06:00 PM in Harare, Pretoria.

Exclusive Books

In December 2010, in Port Elizabeth, Andy Kawa was abducted, attacked, and raped for 15 hours at Kings Beach. Her attackers were never caught. She successfully sued the police for failing to properly investigate her attack. In November 2018, Port Elizabeth Judge Sarah Sephton found police officers were 'grossly negligent' in the performance of their duties with regards to her case both in the search for her and subsequent investigation. The police appealed the judgement. Webinar Registration:

https://us02web.zoom.us/join/register/WN_9TUUmz4AQRmSy_E7XuJJg

ISSUED BY:

INANDA SEMINARY ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION
E-mail: inandaseminaryalumni@outlook.com